STAT Dear [Redacted]

STAT

I am informed that [Redacted] who is serving with your Company as an assistant to the Vice President, has had extensive training and experience in a field of activity which is of special interest at the present time to the Central Intelligence Agency. Because of his excellent and unique background, it is felt that the services of [Redacted] will be of outstanding value to this Agency.

Pursuant to discussions held with you and [Redacted] by my representative, [Redacted] on 17 May 1950, regarding [Redacted] I would like to make the following proposal. It is requested that [Redacted] be granted, without prejudice to his present position and retirement benefits, a year's leave of absence beginning as soon as he can be released, to accept a responsible post on my staff. It is understood that at the end of that year, with your concurrence, consideration will be given to the possible extension of [Redacted] assignment to this Agency. If you find it possible to approve this request, I can assure you that his services will make a genuine contribution to an activity most significant to the national security.
